Designation: Quality Analyst
Type: Full-time
Location: Pune
Qualification: B. Tech / BE in Computer Science / Information Technology
Experience: 3 - 4 years of experience

Responsibilities:
- Assist in web application testing and audits, and handle documentation.
- Use Selenium WebDriver to write automated tests for the company website.
- Develop test cases to replicate and understand the behavior of actual users visiting the website.
- Apply knowledge in the areas of programming and coding, evaluate web performance and conduct website analysis.

Required Skills:
- Talented, resourceful and self-motivated individuals with excellent communication skills.
- Must be proficient in Selenium WebDriver, MS Excel and have good analytical and logic building abilities.
- Detail-oriented with the ability to work independently.
- Well-organized professional with excellent time management skills.

Salary: As per industry standards

Selection Process:
Our selection process comprises a brief screening interview and a final personal interview

About Us:
Pure Knowledge Solutions LLP is an ITES startup venture that offers online proofreading and copyediting services through its growing international brand PaperTrue. The brain child of an IIT Bombay alumnus, Pure Knowledge Solutions LLP is backed by one of Pune's largest advertising agencies. Established in 2013, the company crossed a USD 1 million turnover in the last financial year. Our organization has a flat hierarchy with tremendous learning and growth opportunities, and a fulfilling culture involving numerous team-building and recreational activities. Candidates can expect a high-growth environment in terms of compensation, learning, and skill development.

Contact:
Interested candidates can reach us at hiring@papertrue.com

Rishi Raj
Founder-Director